

The White House News Photographers Association announces the 2008

Student Photographer of the Year Contest

The WHNPA is proud to announce a new contest open to students from across the country to compete for the honor of WHNPA Student Photographer of the Year. The contest opens on February 1, 2008 and will accept entries until 11:59 p.m. EST on March 1, 2008. To download a PDF of complete contest rules and guidelines, got to www.whnpa.org/studentcontest.

The winning student portfolio will receive a $1000 scholarship, two tickets to the annual WHNPA black tie gala in Washington, D.C., featured work printed in the Eyes of History™ awards book and traveling exhibit and a free one year subscription to Digital Railroad, the host and sponsor of this year's competition.
